

KRISTA MURPHY

Krista Murphy is an Early Learning Services Coordinator at the Orange County (CA) Department of Education, where she serves as the Quality Start OC co-lead and QRIS Region 9 technical Assistance lead. Krista has 20 years' experience in the early childhood education field, as a preschool and kindergarten teacher, adjunct professor, and systems development lead. Krista holds a BS in Child Development, a master's degree in Cross-Cultural Education, multiple subject and administrative serves credentials, and recently served on the National Association for the Education of Young Children's (NAEYC) Governing Board. She is passionate about developing systems and policies that support play-based learning as the foundation for equitable high quality birth-8 education.

