

MARY ANN BIERMEIER

Mary Ann Biermeier, M.Ed. is an educational speaker, instructional designer, and author. With over 20 years in the early childhood field, she is passionate about the power of positive, intentional teaching practices. She understands the transformative power of relationship driven teaching strategies. Inspired by the Reggio Emilia approach, she reminds us all that children learn deeply in playful environments. Mary Ann is board chair of Valley of Sun Chapter AzAECY, former board chair for Communities in Schools of Arizona and All Star Kids Tutoring, supporting children at risk.

